Khilona – India Toys & Games Fair is India's big step to capture a larger share of the world market.

At USD 224 Million, India's Toys & Games exports account only 0.2% of the world share, the standpoint presents a huge potential for our exports to grow multifold. To achieve this, the sector essentially needs global exposure and access to overseas buyers.

The Global Toys Imports are over $93 Billion with US, Germany, UK, France and Japan importing 31%, 7%, 6%, 5% and 4%. The India Toy Market is estimated to be at ₹ 8000 Crores, and is expectedly set to organise and expand having potential to double by 2025.

Maiden Show Participants' Comment

Tremendous response

...an active and strong platform for entrepreneurs of all sizes. There are many interested buyers among visitors. Our products are tested to European and American standards. We are seeing tremendous response.

Hitaishi KK - Handmade Happiness, Kolkata

Good way to meet buyers one-to-one

....a good platform, a good start, a pleasant surprise! We did not come with any expectations but the footfall was great. Being a growing startup, getting buyer appreciation means a lot!

Shumee Toys, Bangalore

Positive with enquiries

... we make playing cards that make learning easy. Though our business is exporting, we never got to know the people who buy for retail in the buyer countries. This gap being addressed through this fair - something that India lacked.

The Space Techie, Mumbai

Everything's been nice

.... we have received lots of enquiries. We make educational toys, jigsaw puzzles, DIY and AI products. Got very good support. Seeing foreign visitors coming to the fair is encouraging indeed

Cocomoco, Delhi

Great platform

.... platform will give a great push to the local toy market. We deal in artsy 1000 piece jigsaw puzzles that feature original work of Indian artists. The response has been great.

Pieceplay, Ahmedabad

Great exposure for us

.... my products are learning crafts with hands-on and DIY way. Great to see these many buyers coming to Greater Noida. There is a lot to learn here; one also gets to see other products and know market trends. Customers too are giving direct feedback.

Active Hands DIY, Ahmedabad
